► DEPARTMENT REPORTS

Monthly reports for May were received from the RCMP, Planning, Engineering and Public Works, Fire, and the Museum. Highlights of these reports are as follows:

HIGHLIGHTS

Engineering

- North Port Sewer Abatement Project site inspection. Project is 80% complete and is meeting expectations.
- Strathcona Street Reconstruction Project was substantially completed in September.
- The annual Coast Waste Management Association Conference was hosted in Port Alberni on October 5, 6 and 7, 2005.
- The annual video camera program of selected City sewers began in September. Results of this program dictate operational and capital works programs.

Fire Department

- The Fire Department responded to 99 calls in September.
- A natural gas distribution line was severed by an excavator in the Westporte Place subdivision.
- Several car fires during the month of September resulted in varying amounts of property damage.
- All fire crews received training in "firefighter road safety".
- All fire crews received training in fire apparatus pre-trip inspections.

► REPORTS

The September Audit Committee meeting minutes including the August monthly statements were received by Council.

A Development Variance Permit was considered for property at 2919 Kingsway Avenue, to vary the setback requirement on the side yard. Council accommodated public input and then adopted a resolution to grant the variance as requested.

Council approved a $35,000 expense from the Water Revenue Fund to eliminate the dead end watermain at 8th and 9th Avenues in conjunction with the subdivision service work in the 2300 Block of 8th Avenue.

Council approved the renewal of the agreement with Bus Stop Media to provide bus benches with advertising throughout the City.

Council directed staff to investigate the costs and benefits of replacing the Government Agent Building roof using additional funds from the Glenwood roofing budget, with the balance of the Glenwood funds placed in reserve. A report will be prepared for the next regular meeting of Council.

Council adopted a resolution to request that the Local Provincial Court change the day for Criminal Court proceedings in Port Alberni. Presently the day is Friday which can result in additional costs to the City when prisoners are not processed in time to be transported to facilities outside of the community. They end up spending the weekend in the Port Alberni RCMP detachment cells, at the City's expense.
