OCP and ZONING AMENDMENT APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Land use in Port Alberni is regulated through a combination of the Official Community Plan Bylaw 4602 and Zoning Bylaw 4832. In general, the Official Community Plan provides broad policy guidelines around how land is to be used, while the Zoning Bylaw contains specific regulations for development and permitted activities.

These land use Bylaws can be updated, or changed, by applying to the City of Port Alberni for an amendment. All applications to amend the Official Community Plan Bylaw or Zoning Bylaw must be approved by Council, which has broad authority to make land use decisions in the interest of the community.

OFFICIAL COMMUNITY PLAN (OCP)

Local Government Act (section 472) gives Council the authority to adopt an Official Community Plan Bylaw. All other bylaws adopted by the City must be consistent with the policies and maps in Official Community Plan – including the Zoning Bylaw. This means that in order to change the Zoning Bylaw the OCP must also be amended if the proposed change means that the two bylaws are no longer consistent. Additionally, the Local Government Act places an obligation on the City to engage with the community when considering an amendment to the OCP.

ZONING BYLAW

The Local Government Act (section 479) gives Council the authority to adopt a Zoning Bylaw that regulates how land, buildings, and structures are used within the community. The Bylaw does this by designating every property in the city with a specific “zone”. Each zone has different regulations for how the property may be used including the density of development, height of buildings, the percentage of lot that may be built upon, and permitted activities. A Zoning Bylaw amendment is required in order to change the zone of a specific property, or to change the written regulations of a zone.

APPLICATION PROCESS

For most applications the process is as listed below. Please note: process may take four months or more from the time the application is received until Final Adoption by Council. Complex applications may take longer.

6. The amending bylaw is drafted, and proceeds to Council for 1st and 2nd readings.

---

7. Public Hearing is held on the scheduled date.

---

8. Council considers comments from Public Hearing at Regular Meeting, gives 3rd reading of amending bylaw, and sets conditions for Final Adoption.

---

9. Staff prepare a report for Council recommending Final Adoption if conditions are met.

---

10. Council considers the report and approves Final Adoption of the amending bylaw.

---

11. The applicant is notified, and City records are updated.
